رفقا بالحوار Muhammad Jibālī 2005 Marriage holds a position of perpetual significance because of the central role it plays in human life. It is not surprising, therefore, that the scholars of Islam have discussed it extensively through the ages. Under the contemporary influence of non-Islamic cultures, however, misconceptions have crept into various areas of Islam - spilling into marriage, divorce, and other family-related matters. Viewing the needs of the Muslims who live in non-Islamic environments, and realizing that most Islamic writings on marriage are restricted in scope, we find quite a large gap that needs to be filled for the benefit of the English-speaking Muslims - which is what we attempt to accomplish over the span of this 4-book set that covers various aspects of marriage according to the authentic Sunnah. This book covers the obligations of the two spouses, the wife's rights, and the husband's rights. It contains biographies of the Mothers of the Believers, paints very realistic pictures from the life of the Prophet Mohammed with his wives and the interpretation of the hadith of Umm Zar.

I would gladly sit at these women's feet night after night to hear their stories." -Elizabeth Cunningham, author of The Maeve Chronicles Untold demystifies the most influential women at the dawn of Islam: Prophet Muhammad's wives. They are presented in all their variety, among them, Khadija, a successful merchant and his only wife for twenty-five years; Umm Salama, who helped forge an important peace treaty; Rayhana and Safiyya, two Jewish captives; and there are others. This unusual book combines short biographies with meticulous research. The reader enters seventh century Arab culture and the first moments of what came to be a new religion. Great Women of Islam Mahmood Ahmad Ghadanfar 2001

Commanders Of Muslim Army Mahmood Ahmad Ghadanfar 2001-01 There was a time when Muslim warriors were the symbol of terror for the enemies of Islam and humanity; though they were also considered as the protectors of righteous, surrenders and aged. Even the women and children of enemies use to feel safe under their canons. This is why Islam spread rapidly on the earth because these leaders were trained by the Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah be upon him). This book will tell you about the life stories, moderation, significance, valour, eloquence, faith, steadfastness, sense of justice and winning strategies of more than twenty five (25) brave commanders of Muslims. Who fought for Islam with less soldiers and arms but their strategies made them able to raise their flags against their huge enemies even ten (10) times greater in number than them. These commanders includes: 1) Khalid Bin Waleed 2) Abdur Rahman Bin Auf 3) Zaid Bin Harithah 4) Asim Bin Thaabit 5) Sa'd Bin Abi Waqas and many other... Mahmood Ahmad Ghadanfar the writer of the book has quoted the incidents, Ahadiths and strategies in a thrilling way that motivates the Muslims. As one of them is here for your reference: Once during the training when the Prophet (Peace and Blessings of Allah be upon him) asked about the strategy to adopt in the battle, one of his Companion, 'Asim bin Thabit (May Allah be pleased with him) had stood up with his bow in his hand and replied: "When the enemy is a hundred yards away, we will use our bows and arrows; when the enemy comes closer, we will fight with our spears; when the spears break, we will have a hand to hand combat with our swords." When the Prophet (Peace and Blessings of Allah be upon him) heard this, he said: "Doubtless this was the way to fight a battle. Whoever wishes to take part in a battle should adopt the strategy of 'Asim bin Thabat."

Stories of the Prophets Ibn Kathir 2016-01-27 ----- To Buy a Hardcover search for book with ISBN: 9781948117036 -----The English reader will definitely find this book highly interesting and thought-provoking. In this book, the stories of the prophets have been compiled from 'Al-Bidayah wan-Nihayah' (The Beginning and the End) which is a great work of the famous Muslim exegete and historian Ibn Kathir and has a prominent place in the Islamic literature. The stories of the prophets and all the events in their lives have been supported by the Qur'anic Verses and the Sunnah (traditions) of the Prophet (S). Wherever it was necessary, other sources have also been reported for the sake of historical accounts, but on such places a comparative study has been made to prove the authenticity of the sources. Ibn Kathir has reproduced the views and interpretations of all the great exegetes of the Qur'an of his time. The systemic narratives of the Stories of the Prophets have been written in chronological order which renders a historical style to the book. Allah the Most Exalted says in the Qur'an: "We are relating unto you the most beautiful of stories in that what We have revealed to you from the Qur'an, though before it you were from among those who were not aware of them." (12:3) "We have indeed sent aforesaid Messengers before you, of them there are some whose stories We have related to you, and whose stories We have not related to you..." (40:78) "We relate to you the important news of their story in truth..." (18:13) "And all that We relate to you of these stories of the Messengers, We strengthen with them your heart. Through them there come to you the truth as well as admonition and reminder to all those who believe." (11:120) "There is, indeed, in their stories lessons for people endowed with understanding. It is not any invented tale, but a confirmation of what went before it, and a detailed exposition of all things, and a guide and a mercy to the people who believe." (12:111) "...so relate the stories, perhaps they may reflect." (7:176)
